<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Essay Title (see separate sheet)</th>
<th>Write your essay question in here:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year 9 Homework</th>
<th>Spring 1: Writing an Analytical essay</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Start Here:

A: Writing

- Write an Introduction to your chosen essay question.
  - In it you should explain your Thesis, which is what you believe to be the answer to the question. This does not need to be a full answer yet.

B: Reading

- Read carefully through the scenes which you will be looking at for your question. Use this website:
  - Write down any quotations which you plan on looking at in detail.

C: Revising

- Look at the feedback from your teacher and your classmates on your Thesis statement.
  - Rewrite your Introduction based on the statements made by others.
  - Write a paragraph which draws on your reading from last week and argues for your Thesis.

Row 2:

- Begin these tasks once you have completed the tasks above.

A: Writing

- Write two more paragraphs.
  - Each paragraph should include evidence from the text and make reference to figurative language and other literary devices.
  - Make sure you explain how it links to your Thesis.
  - Paragraphs should be 120 words long minimum.

B: Reading

- Revisit the text. Do you notice anything else about the scenes you are studying? Does anything about the language use strike you?
  - Either make notes on your fresh reading or write an additional paragraph for your essay.

C: Revising

- Re-read the text and any feedback you have had on it.
  - You should now be in a position to finish the piece of work with a strong conclusion. This should tie your points together and explain how the evidence you have presented demonstrates your thesis.
  - Proofread and submit the essay.

The finished essay must be a minimum of 800 words.